General Meeting
Selection of 2010
Grantees

This is a busy and exciting time in AAWGT's yearly cycle. At the May 12th meeting, members will select AAWGT grant recipients for 2010. The Grants Review Committee evaluated a record 39 proposals (requesting a total of $310,822), resulting in a list of finalists from which members will select the grantees. Members, watch for an email this week that explains the voting procedure and includes information about the finalists.

The slate of finalists includes programs that serve women and families in Anne Arundel County across the full spectrum of focus areas defined in the AAWGT Grant Criteria (click here to view): education, health and welfare, and prevention/treatment of violence and abuse. The finalists were selected after careful review by the Grants Review Subcommittee. Reviewer teams were guided by the following considerations as they evaluated each proposal:

Which programs best:

- match AAWGT Grant Criteria (click here to view)
- address important needs for women and families in Anne Arundel County;
- present a plan to address those needs and have the capacity to carry it out;
- provide benchmarks that define success and enable the organization to make improvements in the future.

Review Teams also sought to determine where AAWGT funding might be most beneficial, that is, to identify the programs where our funding would make a difference.

The grants review process is truly a team effort. Thirty-five AAWGT members, comprising seven review teams and a financial reviewer, participated in the process. Under the direction of experienced team leaders, these groups worked through March and April to evaluate the applications. In many cases, site visits and/or telephone interviews were conducted to obtain more information or to clarify points in the proposals. Team leaders gathered twice to discuss and rank the applications. We would like to thank all the members who have worked so hard to make this a successful year.

buzz of energy in the crowd as we collectively mixed, mingled, enjoyed wine and hors d'oeuvres, and talked a little about AAWGT.

The brief program began with a welcome to our newest members and introductions of guests. Lynne Davidson and Bronwyn Belling spoke briefly about giving circles and AAWGT highlights and Jan Hoffberger thanked our group on behalf of our sponsoring organization, the Community Foundation of Anne Arundel County. We heard from members Becki Kurdle, Randi Hogan and Carol Cronin on "What AAWGT Means to Me." Gloria Martin Pressman concluded with an invitation to join AAWGT and participate in any number of ways.

Thanks to the Membership Committee (Karen Davis, Gloria Martin Pressman, Missy Attridge and Rosalind Calvin), to the many AAWGT members who brought guests, and to all volunteers who helped make the evening a great success!!

→ Time to Renew Your AAWGT Membership!

If you have not renewed your membership, please send your check payable to CFAAC (put AAWGT on the memo line - or go online to www.givingtogether.org) as soon as possible. If you have questions about your membership contribution, please contact:

Education & Program:

On April 28, Barbara Mohrman hosted a fascinating discussion of this month's book recommendation: Half the Sky: Turning Oppression into Opportunity for Women Worldwide, with stories of how a little help can transform lives of utter despair and unleash the potential for women to make economic progress. The group shared reactions to the book and women's stories it presented, which led into discussion of sex trafficking and women's issues in Maryland. Thanks to Barbara for hosting and to all who came and participated!

Have you read a book or article that you would like to share and discuss with other members? Do you have a passion to learn more about specific issues that affect women and families? The Education & Programs Committee welcomes all members who would like to contribute their ideas and energy to develop discussion groups, educational sessions and other learning opportunities. Contact Laurie Sharp at lsharp1000@msn.com for more information.
